FATHER'S DAY

June 15, 2008 was an especially difficult Father's Day for me, but you would have never known it!

One year before was the last Father's Day that I would spend with my dad. I distinctly remember taking dad out to eat in Green Bay, but little did I know it would be his last. For most of us we will never know when it will be the last day we will spend with our dad. On Father's Day 2022, I remember him again revisiting my log from 2018.

A PRAYER... "Gracious God, Father of my Lord Jesus Christ, and through him also my true Father, I thank you that You have given me an earthly father. I know he was your representative on earth by providing for me, caring for me, and loving me including my body and soul.

I pray that You will continually make me aware of the great debt I owe my father. Help me to cherish him as a precious gift from you, O heavenly Father. May I always honor and respect him.

Finally, when life's day is done, grant me the joy and bliss of spending eternity with You, my heavenly Father, and with him, my earthly father, as well as with all my loved ones in heaven itself. I ask this in Jesus name. Amen."
