Pastor's report -

Addyson Michels will lead worship at ULC on Sunday of 150th Anniversary at NSLC. September 19-20th is the Synod Council Retreat at Luther Point Bible Camp.

Deacon Ministries – Keeping up with the events and funerals at church.

Trustee Ministries – Propane tank was inspected.

Children Youth and Family Ministries – Kristal noted that both Sunday School and Confirmation have begun. Kristal ordered “Christmas Road Trip” for the Christmas program.

Old Business – T-shirt signups will be available until this Sunday 9/14/25 and must be paid in advance. Lenore Robinson has stepped away, but suggested we order mums for the tables. Kristal will call Growing Wishes to see if they have twelve 6” mums available and will be in charge of the placemats. Ladies group will provide table coverings. Ridgeland parade went well and it was a great turn out. Retaining wall progress is on hold for now due to other commitments. Tom and Robert will move the large old copier and bring to a recycling event tomorrow 9/10 at Sterling Bank. Dawn will preorder 100 ornaments through How House Limited Editions for the anniversary. Janelle is collecting and sorting through photos, Dave Driver will scan the photos, then once scanned, she will assemble the power point presentation. Gladys provided $250 Thrivent card for groceries. Menu includes chicken, pork, beans, potato salad, Norwegian baking, and beverages. Pastor will let ULC know we would graciously accept assistance from approximately 6 people to assist with our 150th celebration.

New Business – Tom will reach out to ULC regarding Pastor, Secretary and Organist wages. M/S/C – Kristal/Robert for Executive Committee to meet and evaluate for increase in wages. Special 150th meeting on 9/30/25 at 6:30, with budget meeting scheduled for Tuesday 10/14 at 5:00 before the October council meeting.
