Dear New Scandinavia Friends,

Thank you so much for the Christmas card and gift. When I was writing out Christmas cards this season I had recently talked to my friend Jim, who was my organ tutor and inspiration. With the last conversation in November, I knew he had moved, so I did not have his current address to send a card. I decided to just Google his name to see if his new address would show up. The first thing that showed up was his obituary. I knew he had cancer, but he didn't let on that he was that sick.

Each of us probably has a person in our lives that stood out as award winning influencer who shaped us; a teacher, a parent, a grandparent, a friend. This is what Jim was to me. I met him 20 years ago when he taught an organ workshop in Cameron. He was a very talented musician who worked for Rodger's Organ Studio, as a side job. His main job was his dentistry. But his passion for sharing his music was contagious. I owe my skills on the organ at New Scandinavia to him. He trained me on the Dallas organ and then when NS burned down he was instrumental in helping us get the organ we have today.

I am very sad to have lost this amazing friend. I am also very thankful for his presence in my life. He was a true gift from God. We never know how our little or big acts of kindness affect another human being. Thank you for letting me share music with you each week. Of all the jobs I have had in my life, it is my favorite. When struggles and hope and love seem out of reach, music is the universal language of the soul.

Love, Jackie
